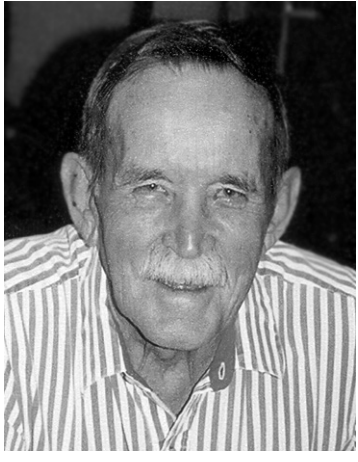
Willis Kemp "Bubba" Boydston



1931-2010

DECATUR: Willis Kemp "Bubba" Boydston, 78, a self-employed cement contractor, died Thursday, February 25, 2010, in Decatur.

Bubba was born August 6, 1931, in Decatur to Charlie Simmons and Bertha Elizabeth Kemp Boydston. He married Patsy Jean King on July 15, 1956, in Decatur. Bubba served in the United States Army and was a member of Fundamental Baptist Church in Decatur.

Survivors include his daughter, Pam Wood and husband, Raymond of Decatur; two sister, Charlene Eakman of Decatur, Opal Othell Smith of Fort Worth; granddaughters, Nicki and Natalie Wood; numerous nieces, nephews and host of friends.

Bubba is preceded in death by his wife of 47 years, Patsy Boydston; brother, Carroll Boydston and sister, Della Cisco.

Graveside service was held at 2 p.m. Saturday at Sweetwater Cemetery with Reverend Charles Taylor officiating.

Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, March 4, 2010