Waller, Paul Edsel | 1924-2011
Published Wednesday, November 16, 2011

Funeral for Paul Edsel Waller, 87, of Alvord was Nov. 15 at Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home with the Rev. Bill Cleveland officiating. Burial followed at Blue Bonnet Hills Cemetery in Colleyville.

Waller died Friday, Nov. 11, 2011, in Decatur.

Born June 13, 1924, in Dallas to Edgar Nathan and Bertha (Burnett) Waller, he married Vanara Jane Smith Nov. 10, 1968, in Madill, Okla. He served in the U.S. Air Force during World War II and Korea.

Waller retired from American Airlines as an aircraft mechanic after 37 years. After his retirement, he ranched and raised Black Angus cattle.

Waller was preceded in death by son Edgar John Waller; daughter Paulette Sprouse; and brother Don Waller.

He is survived by his wife; son Don Waller and wife, Sherry, of Morgan; daughter Debra Tuttle and husband, David, of Southlake; sister Janet McGlamery of Houston; grandchildren; and great-grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society, Wise County Unit, P.O. Box 428, Decatur, TX 76234.