Ernesteen 'Teen' Motsenbocker

Funeral for Ernesteen “Teen” Motsenbocker, 84, of Decatur, formerly of Idalou and Bridgeport, is 10:30 a.m. Monday, Jan. 23, at Grace Baptist Church with Bill Hughes and Van Gardner officiating. Burial will follow at Paradise Cemetery.

Visitation is 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday at Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home.

Motsenbocker died Wednesday, Jan. 18, 2012, in Decatur.

Born Dec. 3, 1927, in Decatur to Ernest and Lois (Ewing) Davis, she graduated from Paradise High School and Draughn’s Business College. She marrried Ralph Motsenbocker May 21, 1946, in Wichita Falls.

She was a devout Baptist who taught Sunday school classes. Motsenbocker participated in water and boating activities with her family and played bridge with her friends. She had an extensive business career in the Idalou and Lubbock area, including employment at Blue Flame Gas, Idalou ISD, First Federal Savings and Loan in Lubbock and Kanine Akademy in Decatur. She also volunteered with Amen X-Press, a non-profit geriatrics singing ministry.

Motsenbocker is survived by her husband; son Kirk Motsenbocker and wife, Cheryl, of Flower Mound; daughter Kim Saling and husband, David, of Decatur; grandsons Zachary Motsenbocker of Flower Mound and R.J. Hunt of Decatur; granddaughters Ashlyn and Alesha Shobar; and great-grandson Davis Hunt.

Pallbearers are Bryan Shobar, R.J. Hunt, Randy Singleton, Jeff Singleton, Brent Singleton and Gary Cocanougher.

Memorials may be made to Amen X-Press, 3519 South Murvil St., Decatur, TX 76234.
