Julia Lamance | 1932-2016

Published Wednesday, November 30, 2016
Tags: Boyd

Julia Lamance

Julia Lamance, 84, of Boyd, died Monday, Nov. 28, 2016, in Decatur.

Funeral is 10:30 a.m. Friday, Dec. 2, at Garvin United Methodist Church in Boyd with the Rev. Phillip Weitner officiating.

Visitation is 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday at Christian-Hawkins Funeral Home in Boyd.

Julia was born March 29, 1932, in Weldon to Theodore and Florence (McManners) Turney. She married Windell Jack Lamance Oct. 13, 2001, in Boyd. Julia retired from Harris Hospital after 40 years of service as a registered nurse. She was an award-winning, published poet.

Julia owned the House of Hits music store in Fort Worth. She loved to crochet and donated hats to the Cancer Society. She was treasurer for the Fort Worth Poets Society, a Sunday school teacher at Garvin United Methodist Church and a Girl Scout leader.

She was preceded in death by her parents; and previous husband Harry Jarmusz.

Julia is survived by her husband; son John Bruce Langley and wife, Sharon, of Valdosta, Ga.; daughters Vivian Diane Brown and husband, R.D., of Round Rock, Mary Catherine Jackson and husband, Tommy, of Palmyra, Tenn., and Sharon Overstreet and husband, Chuck, of Boyd; 16 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren; sisters Carolyn Turney of Round Rock and Barbara of Seattle; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.