CHICO: Freda Ruth Wiley, 81, of Chico, passed away June 17, 2010, in Bridgeport.

Freda was born January 15, 1929 in Grand Saline, Texas, to D. C. and Middie Norris Sullivan. She loved the Lord and was a member at New Hope Fellowship Church in Chico. She was the longtime spouse of O.B. Wiley of Chico, whom she married on September 13, 1951, in Decatur, Texas.

She is survived by her daughter, Karen Jo Keller and husband Jack, Jr. of Chico; brother Wayne Sullivan and wife Billie of Conroe, Texas; sister Shirley Corbin and husband Cecil of Conroe; grandson Jason Wade Smith of Irving, Texas; granddaughter Jada Ayala and husband Orlando; and great-grandson Wiley Ayala of Fort Worth; sister-in-law JoAnn Manning of Chico; brother-in-law L. E. Jones of Bowie; numerous nieces and nephews; and a host of friends.

She is preceded in death by her husband, parents, and two brothers, Bobby and Don Sullivan.

The funeral was at 10:00 AM Saturday, June 19, at Jones Family Funeral Home in Bridgeport. Kenneth Wood will officiate. Interment will follow at Crafton Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Jason Wade Smith, Orlando Ayala, Ray Bennett Coulson, Jr., Kenny Lane Coulson, Cody South, Joey South, William MacDonald, and Billy Wayne McCasland. Family visitation will be 6-8 PM Friday, June 18, at Jones Family Funeral Home.

Jones Family Funeral Home
1401 Halsell St. Bridgeport, Tx.

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, June 24, 2010