CHARLES WOODARD

1927-2010

DECATUR: Charles Henry Woodard, 83, died on Monday, April 26, 2010 in Decatur.

Charles was born March 28, 1927 in Corsicana, Texas to Abel Henry and Bessie Flora Brown Woodard. He graduated from Texas Wesleyan College in Fort Worth with a master in education. He retired from Birdville ISD after 31 years of teaching.

Charles was a dedicated teacher who wanted each one of his students to succeed. After his retirement, Charles opened his antique store, Charles’ Antiques in Decatur, and was in the antique business for over 30 years. He was deacon at Twin Oaks Assembly of God church.

Survivors include his nieces, Edna Sanders of Dimmitt, Texas, Jane Mc-Manus of Arlington, Texas; nephews, Luther Follis of Edgewood, Texas, Randy Follis of Aztec, New Mexico, Joe Woodard of Fort Worth; numerous great nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of friends.

Family requests memorials be made to Solaris Hospice, 2250 S. FM 51, Decatur, Texas 76234 or Twin Oaks Assembly of God, P.O. Box 668, Bridgeport, Texas. 76426.

Funeral service is 3 p.m. Wednesday at Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home Chapel with Reverend Gary Sessions officiating. Interment will follow in Oaklawn Cemetery.

Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, May 6, 2010