

Scoggins (2)- Mr. and Mrs. Chad Jacob Scoggins

Vows exchanged July 4, 2020

By Messenger Staff | Published on September 11, 2020

Kayla Jeane Slimp, of

Hurst, daughter of Rick and Karen Slimp of Decatur, married Chad Jacob Scoggins of Keller, son of Rick and Lisa Scoggins of Grapevine, July 4, 2020, at the Bowden in Keller.

Dr. Matthew LaGrange officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was escorted by her father. She wore a Morilee Kaitlyn trumpet-style wedding gown with Alencon lace, sweetheart neck, illusion back and chapel train with a lace chapel length veil. Her bouquet consisted of blush peonies, soft blue delphinium, tweedia, O'Hara garden roses, cream ranunculus, lavender scabiosa, blush lisianthus and white stock.

Matron of honor was Callie Stec. Bridesmaids were Samantha Slimp, Taylor Slimp, Monica Scoggins, Kate Crosswhite, Sarah Leick, Nicole Volesky, Cora Beth Burris, Amanda Castellente and Meagan Le. They wore steel blue lace gowns with bouquets coordinating with the bridal bouquet.

The flower girls were Marcie Slimp, daughter of Jeremy and Taylor Slimp and Madelyn Slimp, daughter of Eric and Samantha Slimp.

Ringbearers were Kaidan Slimp, son of Jeremy and Taylor Slimp and Ryan Slimp, son of Eric and Samantha Slimp.

Best man was Trent Scoggins. Groomsmen were Eric Slimp, Jeremy Slimp, Chris Porter, John Ponder, Nick Zeidjlik, David Swan, Daniel Saunders, Josh Bower and Daniel Crispin.

Soloist was Kate Crosswhite.

The couple spent their wedding trip on St. Thomas in the U.S. Virgin Islands.

They will make their home in Hurst.

The bride graduated from Decatur High School in 2008. She has a bachelor's degree in English literature from Texas A&M and a master's in professional counseling from Dallas Baptist University. She works for Provista.

The groom graduated from McKinney High School in 2012. He has a bachelor's in psychology from Dallas Christian College and a master's in professional counseling from Dallas Baptist University. He works for His Story Coaching and Counseling.