

JOHN H. BROWN

1932-2010

DENTON:John H. Brown, 77, of Denton, died Friday, February 19, 2010.

John was born on July 28, 1932 in Denton, Texas, to Otis (Pete) and Mildred Brown. He received his education from Denton High School and North Texas State University, John earned his private pilot,s license when he was 18 and his commercial and multi-engine ratings after returning home from the military.

He entered the United States Air Force where he served as an aircraft mechanic mainly in Japan, from 1952-1956. Mutual interests in flying led him to marry his beloved wife of 49 years, Carolyn Jo Smith of Denton, on April 2, 1960. John retired from Fischbach and Moore International Corporation in 1990.

His 23 years of being a civil estimator, project manager and corporate pilot, carried his family to many different parts of the world.

John is a member of Taylor Park Church of the Nazarene in Denton, where he has served as the construction coordinator in the building of their new church home. John,s love and dedication will soon be realized as the church is nearing its opening.

He is survived by his wife, Carolyn Brown, and one son, John Kevin Brown, and daughter-in-law, Libbi Hedges Brown. John also has three granddaughters, Mattison, Hannah and Haley Jo, who were the delight of his life. He is also survived by his brother, Donald Ray Brown, and wife, Virginia Brown of Runaway Bay, Texas, and many brother-in-laws, sister-in-laws and dozens of nieces and nephews. John will be missed immensely.

Services will be on Tuesday, February 23, 2010, at 2pm in the Chapel of Bill DeBerry Funeral Directors. Burial will follow at Roselawn Memorial Park in Denton.

In lieu of flowers, any contributions may be made in John,s name to the Taylor Park Church of the Nazarene Building Fund, 1905 McCormick, Denton, Texas, 76205.
