

ANITA MORAN

1944-2010

DECATUR: Anita Moran, 65, of Decatur, died Wednesday, May 5, 2010, in Bridgeport.

Anita was born May 28, 1944, in Rosebud to Jose and Mary Veracruz Torres. She married Manuel Moran on April 14, 1962, in Waco. Anita retired from the City of Arlington in 2003 after 20 years of service with her last job being a residential city inspector.

Anita was a member of the Teamsters Union and a member of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church. She was a devoted Mother, wife and grandmother. Her values and traditions will be remembered and passed on for generations to come.

Survivors include husband, Manuel Moran of Decatur; daughters, Monica Brown and husband, George of Decatur; Teresa Schultz and husband, Roger of Plano; four grandchildren, Sydney and Dillan Brown, Caitlin and Carly Schultz; sister, Lupe Torrez, brother, Jesse Torrez; numerous nieces, nephews, and a host of friends.

Funeral service was Saturday, May 8, 2010, at Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home Chapel. Father Simon Torrez officiated. Interment followed at Oaklawn Cemetery.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*

