

Gardner, Ann | 1949-2012

Published Saturday, August 18, 2012

Ann Gardner

Funeral for Ann Gardner, 63, of Chico was Aug. 17 at First Baptist Church in Paradise with the Rev. David Kelly officiating. Burial was at Cottondale Cemetery.

Gardner died Tuesday, Aug. 14, 2012, in Fort Worth.

Born Jan. 14, 1949, in Baird to E.C. and JoAnn (Ramsey) Collinsworth, she was a homemaker. She married Joe Henry Gardner Aug. 10, 1972, in Jacksboro. She was an antique collector, music fan and member of First Baptist Church in Paradise. Gardner spent time with her family.

She was preceded in death by her first husband, John Douglas.

Gardner is survived by her husband of 40 years; daughters D'Layna Gregg and husband, Troy, of Rhome and Alison Read and husband, Brian, of Cottondale; sons Burette Douglas and wife, Gabrielle, of Fort Worth and Brady Gardner and wife, Maygan, of Sanger; 12 grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; sister Regena House of Hurst; and other family members.

Pallbearers were David Cummings, Brad Huff, Paris Martin, Brad Hall, Brent Miller and Paul Ed Arrington.