

Wagner, Dorothy June | 1940-2013

Published in the 'Wise County Messenger' Saturday, May 4, 2013

Dorothy June Wagner

Dorothy June Wagner, 70, died Monday, April 29, 2013, in Decatur.

Funeral was May 2 at Cross Plains Church of Christ with Chester Cullum officiating. Burial was in Cross Plains Memorial Cemetery.

Dorothy was born Nov. 13, 1940, in Coleman to Carl T. and Dora (Meador) Champion. She married Paul Wagner Dec. 18, 1999, in Cross Plains and was a member of Alvord Church of Christ.

Survivors include her husband, Paul Wagner of Boyd; sons Sam Mosley of Anchorage, Alaska, Jamey Mosley of Lake Fork and Johnny Mosley and wife, Rhonda, of Boyd; daughter Ranae Burgess and husband, Lynn, of Lewisville; sisters Vonita Champion of Cross Plains and Zona Mosley of Abilene; grandchildren Bridget Johnson of Mansfield, Ark., Cody Mosley of Anchorage, and Crystal Ann and Tiffany June Mosley, both of Boyd; and one great-granddaughter.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents; her first husband, Charles Mosley; brother Eddie Champion; sister Joyce Parkinson; and grandsons John Charles Mosley Jr. and Brian Mosley.