

Alan ‘Lance’ Alverson | 1969-2015

Published Saturday, February 7, 2015

Tags: Alvord

Alan “Lance” Alverson

Alan “Lance” Alverson, 45, of Granbury, formerly of Alvord, died Wednesday, Jan. 28, 2015.

Funeral was Feb. 4 at Lucas Funeral Home in Fort Worth with burial at Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Lance was born Feb. 25, 1969, in Fort Worth to Ken and Patsy Alverson. He attended Eastern Hills High School 1984-1986. Lance loved his job as a truck driver and enjoyed sharing his daily “My View From Work” pictures and posts with his Facebook family and friends.

He was an avid Pittsburgh Steelers fan his entire life, and he also loved the great outdoors, enjoying fishing and camping. He loved music of all kinds, from Metallica to Neil Diamond. Lance loved the Lord with all his heart and openly shared his faith with everyone he encountered. He was often eager to pray for anyone he felt was in need of or was asking for prayer.

Lance was loved by many people and will be greatly missed.

He was preceded in death by his father, Kenneth Dean Alverson; his maternal and paternal grandparents; and his best friend, Jojo.

He is survived by his wife, Shari Alverson; daughter Ciera Alverson Rog and husband, Joseph; parents Henry and Patsy Cowan; stepmother Vet Alverson; grandchildren Gavin, Kenna and Ryleigh Jo; brothers Dean, Chris and Tommy; sisters Valerie, Wendy, Tami and Sherri; and many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.