William Dayton Meador | 1931-2015

Published Saturday, October 31, 2015
Tags: Decatur

William Dayton Meador

William Dayton Meador, 84, of Decatur, died Wednesday, Oct. 28, 2015, in Dallas.

Funeral is 2 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 31, at DeBerry funeral home in Denton with the Rev. Bill Kimblery of Forestburg Baptist Church officiating. Burial will follow at Roselawn Memorial Park in Denton.

Pallbearers are Brian Owen, Keith Owen, Brandon Meador, Ryan Meador, Ronnie Meador and Scott Lawrence.

William was born June 14, 1931, in Argyle, to Robert Leonard and Annie Vaughn Meador. He married Delores Ann Owens in Denton. He served in the U.S. Air Force during the Korean War, was owner of Meador Refrigeration and a member of Forestburg Baptist Church.

He is preceded in death by his parents and wife.

William is survived by his daughter, DeAnn Owen and husband, Tom, of Coppell; sons, Dale Meador and wife, Jacki, of Denton, David William Meador and Holley Caley of Decatur; sister Juanita Baker of San Antonio; brother Vaughn Wayne Meador of Denton; six grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.