

Kayla Nichols | 1971-2016

Published Saturday, June 4, 2016

Tags: Bridgeport

Kayla (Morrow) Nichols

Kayla (Morrow) Nichols, 45, of Bridgeport, died Tuesday, May 31, 2016, in Decatur.

Funeral was June 3 at Grace Fellowship Church in Paradise, with the Rev. Rocky Johnson officiating. Burial followed in East Bridgeport Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Wendell Wiggins, Bobby Green, Ronnie Pewitt, J.R. Garza, Lynn Long, Tommy Johnson, Toby Nichols and Chan Horne.

Kayla was born April 6, 1971, in Bridgeport to Larry and Judy (Groves) Morrow. She was a 1989 graduate of Bridgeport High School. In her younger years, she was active with her youth group at church and particularly enjoyed singing.

She loved helping people and enjoyed time spent with Bridgeport ISD, working with special needs children.

Kayla was full of life, and a little mischief, and always had a smile on her face. Her children were the love of her life, and she was very involved in their lives. She was greatly loved by many and will be deeply missed.

Kayla was preceded in death by grandparents J.W. and Myrtie Groves, and Grady Morrow and Neoma Collins.

She is survived by son Toby Wayne Nichols; daughter Tiphanee Michelle Nichols and fianc , Eugene Lackey; parents Larry and Judy Morrow; brother Cody W. Morrow; grandsons Danny Lackey and Trenton Ellison; uncle Gerald W. Groves; aunts Jean Fox and husband, Henley and Alice Sherrod; her dearest friend, Sherry Bisidas-Grantham; and other family and friends.