

May, Jo Ann (Allman Weston)

1932-2019

By Messenger Staff | Published on November 26, 2019

Jo Ann May, 87, passed away Sept. 4, 2019, after a long battle with cancer, at the Bridgeport Medical Lodge, under the loving care of Solaris Hospice.

She was born Dec. 15, 1932, in Brownwood to Harley and Mae (Hutton) Allman. Jo Ann was one of four children.

A Celebration of Life service will be held for Jo Ann at 3 p.m. Friday, Nov. 29 at Hawkins Funeral Home in Bridgeport. The family is receiving friends an hour prior to the memorial at the funeral home.

Jo Ann spent many loving years as a rancher in Colorado and Texas, with her husband Alvin Carroll Weston, before settling in Arlington. After Carroll's passing, she spent more than 40 years in her cherished home on Lake Bridgeport. Here, she spent her time until retirement as a legal secretary for Durant Clements.

Ten years ago the fateful day came that Jo Ann met Robert (Ernie) May, and a new love story was written. The next 10 years of Jo Ann's life were spent loving Ernie and ALL of her family. Although they had already committed their love to each other for eight years, they made it official and were joined in marriage Dec. 15, 2017. Jo Ann loved to share and spent much of her time burning music CD's, sewing do-rags and marvelous bags to give away to all she knew and met along her journey of life. Of course she always had a great book to share as well. She most enjoyed the spectator sport of lake shenanigans.

Jo Ann was preceded in death by her parents; brothers, Jimmy and Alan; first husband, Alvin Carroll Weston; daughter Linda (Weston) Wilson; and son Alvin Weston Jr.

She is survived by her loving husband, Robert (Ernie) May; daughter Mary (Doug) Bennett; sister Barbara Beasley; grandson David (Raquel) Wilson and their children; granddaughter Brittany Worrell (K.K. Frances); great grandchildren Kayson and Brooklyn Frances.

Jo Ann's stepfamily of over 10 years, from her union of love with Ernie, include stepdaughter Angie Brown; stepgrandchildren Amira Elsouki (Justin Williams), Austin Brown; and stepgreat-grandchildren August, Aiden and AJ Brown.

Jo Ann will be dearly missed by many other relatives and scores of friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting that you please donate to Jo Ann's favorite charity, Disabled American Veterans at dav.org.

Hawkins Funeral Home Bridgeport