A graveside service for Eddie “Laddie” Glenn Lane, 82, of Bridgeport, will be 2 p.m. Sunday, June 14, at Eastside Cemetery in Bridgeport. He passed away peacefully on Wednesday, April 22, 2020, in Bridgeport.
Eddie was born Sept. 18, 1937, in Berino, N.M., to Lavonia Morgan and Homer Bell. He served his country in the U.S. Navy for almost four years. Eddie worked as a pipe fitter welder for the local Union in New Mexico.
Dad (Grandpa/Poppy to his grandchildren) had a passion for boxing and jogging in his younger days. He continued his routine of walks and shadow boxing all the way up to April 17, 2020. As a young man, he participated in the boxing club during his Navy days and was a lightweight boxer in New Mexico. His strength, endurance and love for his family were known by all.
In the words of his grandsons, “Grandpa was my hero.” He expressed his faith, and our family has great comfort that he knew our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. If there is a boxing ring in heaven, Dad is there shadow boxing.
He was preceded in death by his wife, Patricia Lane.
Eddie is survived by his five daughters, Vicki Lawson Garza of Crowley, Louise Cates and husband, Kenny, of Decatur, Cathy Thompson and husband, Larry, of Newark, Glenda Gaines and husband, Luke, of Mansfield and Rachal Lane of California; his very special friend Billie Brown of Bridgeport; brothers Will Ed Bell and wife, June Denise, of League City and Ronnie Pat Johnson and wife, Elaine, of Mount Clemens, Mich.; grandchildren Starla, Patrick, Melissa, Megan, Jose, Benjamin, Eric and David; great-grandchildren Sage, Emoree, Peyton, Albert, Thaila, Blain, Brooklynn, Kash, Slade, Maggie, Jayce, Isabella, Noah, Troy, Lily, Makenzie, Carlie and Dawson; and many more friends and family.
