Zane Shoecraft

Funeral for Zane Morgan Shoecraft, 20, of Bridgeport, will be 2 p.m. Saturday, June 26, at Hudson and Torres Family Funeral Home. He made his journey to his eternal life on June 13, 2021, in Bridgeport.

Zane was born Feb. 20, 2001, to Wes Shoecraft and Chelly Cloud in Fort Worth. He was raised in Wise County and attended school in Bridgeport and Chico. At the time of his death, Zane was employed at Rhino Linings of Wise County as a skilled technician.

Zane was a hardworking man with a passion to be successful no matter how long he had to work. He enjoyed building things, working on cars and spending time with those he held closest to his heart. Zane spent countless hours with his younger sister, nieces and nephews playing with them, and teaching them different ways to achieve their goals. Zane was especially close to his older brother, Isaac, and the two could often be found relaxing on the porch after work or playing video games or working together on one project or another. He could also be found lounging and cooking out with his brother Robert while jamming out to their music.

Zane always lit up any room he walked into. He was full of excitement, love, care and compassion. He had the most contagious laugh. Zane always took great pleasure in preparing for his nights out with his beautiful fiancée.

Zane is survived by his beloved fiancée, Amy Traister; his parents; brothers Isaac Flores and wife, Mariah, of Decatur, Robert Ingram and wife, Kelsey, of Decatur; sisters Shayla Flores of Chico and Ella Cloud of Bridgeport; grandma Phyllis Eisenman of Bridgeport; soon-to-be father-in-law, Robert Traister; and numerous other family members and friends.

Zane was preceded in death by uncle Ricky Townsley; brothers Zachary, Daryl and Jimmie; Papa, Frank Eisenman; Pink Paw Paw, Leroy Shoecraft; Mimi, Gwen Mills; Mamaw, Irene Cooper and Paw Paw, Jerry Ray.
