Leea Ann White

Leea Ann White, 58, of New Fairview died Monday, Sept. 20, 2021, in Fort Worth. She was born Sept. 6, 1963, in Houston to Larry and Billie Staggs, one of four siblings and the only daughter.

She is survived by her husband, Rick White of New Fairview; parents Larry and Billie Staggs of Midlothian; stepdaughters Amy Turner and husband, Doug, of Flower Mound and Alexis Currie and husband, Jared, of South Texas; grandkids Mackensie Turner, Josh Turner, Jack Currie and Piper Currie; brothers Barrett Staggs and wife, Desiree, of Midlothian, Scott Staggs and wife, Dee Dee, of Alabama and Jason Staggs of Midlothian; and nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends who were like family.

There are some people in this world whose laugh is so contagious and gregarious that you can not help but smile and laugh right along with them. Leea White had that laugh. It was a full on, throw your head back laugh that you could pick out in a crowd. She had a servant's heart and serving others was her love language.

Leea was introduced to Rick through a mutual friend. They were later married and enjoyed 26 loving years together. They purchased what would become their farm and the place where so many memories were created for both family and friends.

Leea gained her strength by spending time with the Lord and on her farm. She loved to share about Jesus just as much as she loved talking gardening and chicken farming. Her faith was solid no matter what came her way. She always had something new to talk about because she was constantly reading. Her favorite things to read were cookbooks and recipes. She was a master in the kitchen, and no one could put a meal together quite like she could and make it look effortless in the process.

Leea will be missed dearly by all who knew and loved her so. Until we see her again, heaven is sweeter with her there. A celebration of her life will be held 2 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 30, at Fellowship of the Parks, 3105 FM 407, Northlake, TX 76247.
