Decatur ~ Kenneth Caraway, 88, went to be with our Lord Wednesday, March 30, 2022, on the Caraway Family Farm.

Graveside service is 10:30 a.m. Monday, April 4, at Sweetwater Cemetery in Decatur. Family will receive friends 4 to 6 p.m. Sunday at Hawkins Funeral Home in Decatur.

Kenneth was born April 23, 1933, to James Monroe and Callie (Francis) Caraway in Decatur. He proudly served his country in the United States Army. Upon his return, he was united in marriage Dec. 26, 1955, in Decatur, to Minnie Laverta Young. He was a loving husband to Minnie before her passing in 1998. Kenneth was a rancher and farmer in the agriculture industry for many years, working on the family farm that has been operated by the Caraway Family since 1878.

Kenneth was a beloved father, grandfather, great-grandfather, uncle and friend to many who will miss him dearly.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Monroe and Callie Caraway; his wife, Minnie Caraway; two brothers, Gene Edwin Caraway and Bert Caraway; and his sister, Shirley Foster.

Those left behind to cherish his memory are his son, Gary Caraway and wife, Lisa, of Decatur; two daughters, Marcia Morrison of Decatur, and Melinda Wilson and husband, Bart, of Decatur; four grandchildren, Eric Caraway and wife, Jocelyn, Jace Caraway and wife, Ryan, Cason Caraway and wife, Emma, all of Decatur, and Chanan James and husband, Logan, of Midland; nine greatgrandchildren, Lake, Ledgen, Saylor, Rosie, Lucy, Presley, Annistyn, Tanner and expecting Tucker in June; numerous nieces, nephews and a host of friends.
