Judy Beth (Morehead) Dickey, 77 years, 11 months, 18 days went home to be with our Lord Jan. 25, 2022, at her home in Boyd. A visitation is planned from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 5, at the First United Methodist Church in Boyd. A memorial service will begin at 1 p.m. Saturday, also at the church, officiated by Pastor Ricky Harrison. Burial will follow in Cottdonale Cemetery.

Judy was born Feb. 12, 1944, in Cottdonale, to Foy Roland and Connie Marie (Franks) Morehead. She spent her early years at the Cottdonale Store where she learned to play a mean hand of dominoes from the old-timers who gathered there for coffee and daily gossip.

She later moved to Boyd where she graduated from BHS in 1962. Judy loved all sports and was a varsity cheerleader, Yellowjacket mascot and a member of the girls varsity basketball state team of 1961. She loved her Boyd Yellowjackets and was a long-time member of the athletic booster club.

Judy married Allen Poe Dickey Oct. 24, 1964, in Boyd. Together they raised four children and had a hand in raising several grandchildren.

Judy was very active in Boyd, and was a true pillar in the community. She excelled in a variety of industries. Judy was an entrepreneur who advocated for female-owned businesses. She was a Past Worthy Matron of the Boyd Eastern Star Chapter 897 and served on the Wise County Child Welfare Board. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church.

Judy had a lifelong passion for floral design and became a licensed floral designer through Tarrant County College in 1978. That same year she opened A and J Florist in Boyd. After many successful years, she sold her shop, then reopened as Celebrations by Judy in 1991. She retired from the floral industry in 2015 to spend time with her husband and grandchildren. Judy also held lengthy employment in the funeral home and cosmetology fields. In her spare time, she very much enjoyed trips to WinStar with her best friend, Brenda Dalton.

She was a devoted wife, mother and friend. Her husband lovingly referred to her as 'Babe' their entire married life. She is preceded in death by her husband, Allen Poe Dickey; parents; mother- and father in-law, Lillie Mae Anderson and Merlin Dickey; brothers-in-law Emmitt Wayne Dickey, Tony Mac Dickey, Raymond Dickey, A.T. Moore and Grover Malone; sisters-in-law Jackie Ruth Malone, Berta Gilbert and Christine Dickey.

She is survived by her children, Tommy and Stacy Dickey of Boyd, Cindy Dickey of Garland, Staci and Mark Romine of Boyd and Barry and Kerri Dickey of New Braunfels; grandchildren, Erica Dickey, Brian and Kendall Dickey, Russell and Tiffany Dickey, Jeffrey Baxter, Jennifer and Trey Dennis, Randall and Brittany Erwin, Erin, Bret and Ryan Dickey; great-grandchildren, Blaine Dickey, Bryson Dickey, Belle Rose Dickey, Alayna Marie Erwin, Everett Lane Erwin, Wyatt Davis, Miley Davis and Ryott Dennis; brother and sister-in-law, Barry and Janet Morehead of Orleans, Calif.; numerous nieces, nephews and other family.
