Joel was born on January 4, 1959 to E.L. "Joe" and Charleen (White) Lamb in Bridgeport, Texas. He was self-employed running the trio garage and the dew drop burger restaurant, worked as a mechanic for many years for himself, City of Bridgeport and Wise County PCT 4. Joel was an avid musician and had a huge passion for blues music. Joel had a big heart and love for motorcycles and always had 2 or 3 Harley Davidsons floating around. Joel was a member of Carpenter Street Church of Christ. He was a beloved father, brother, uncle, companion, cousin and friend to many who will be missed by all that knew and loved him dearly. He was preceded in death by his parents; and his brother, Perry Lamb.

Those left behind to cherish his memory are his son, John Lamb of Dallas; his sister, Trisha Lamb Bradford and husband Chris of Bridgeport; his nephew, Adam Lamb and wife Felica of Paradise; his nephew, Chad Bradford; his great-niece, Adilyn Lamb; his great-nephew Kaydn Lamb; his companion, Victoria Williams of Dallas; his aunt, Babe Gilbert of Milsap; many cousins, and numerous extended family and friends.
