Pamela Gayle Lindsey, 62, of Bowie, went to be with her Lord and Savior on Friday, Dec. 2, 2022. She died peacefully at her home after a brief illness.

Funeral services took place Wednesday, Dec. 7, at the White Family Funeral Home in Bowie, with Rex Hamilton officiating.

Burial followed at Bellevue Cemetery.

Pam was born on May 12, 1960, in Bowie, to the late Jimmy Wayne and Terry Gayle (O'Neill) Lindsey. The Lindsey's moved to Bridgeport in the early 1960s before the kids started school and lived there until Pam graduated from Bridgeport High School in 1978. Pam worked for Walmart for many years and spent the last 15 years working at the Bowie store, where she had a second family of co-workers, customers and friends. She often talked of the friends and family she was able to see every day. Her smile and great attitude will be missed by all.

She is preceded in death by her parents; and her brother, Billy Wayne Lindsey.

Pam is survived by her daughter, Jennifer Sutton; grandson, Justin Sutton of Bowie; her brother Larry Lindsey and wife, Darlene, of Chico; aunts and uncles Janet and Tommy Mitchell and George Green of Fort Worth, Wanda Sigman of Bowie and Sherrill O'Neill of Bellevue, as well as numerous cousins, nieces, nephews, friends and other family members.
