Gordy Clinton Lynch, 81, went home to be with the Lord Monday, Aug. 15, 2022, in Forestburg.

Funeral services will take place at 11 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 18, at the Forestburg Baptist Church, with Pastor Larry McMullen officiating. Burial will follow at New Harp Cemetery in New Harp. Family will receive friends from 6 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 17, at the White Family Funeral Home in Bowie.

Gordy was born Aug. 25, 1940, in Decatur, to Glen and Imogene (Ray) Lynch. He attended school in Forestburg, and graduated in 1958. While in school Gordy worked with his father, and had time to learn a lot from him. But after Glen passed away, Gordy and his mother Imogene worked long and hard to continue the family cattle business as Glen had done. He worked throughout his life as a rancher, truck driver, and businessman.

Gordy was a family man, he loved his children, grandchildren, and great-grands so dearly, and of course the love of his life Denna, who he married July 15, 1978, in Forestburg. He was a longtime member of the Forestburg Baptist Church, and prominent member of the community. Gordy took pride in where he grew up and felt privileged to help out in any way he could. Some of the contributions include providing the watermelons each year for the annual watermelon festival, rounding up items to be donated for the Volunteer Fire Department auctions, board member of the New Harp Cemetery Association, and many donations throughout the years to insure every Forestburg student received a Christmas gift. Gordy will be missed by so many of those that knew him.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Denna Lynch; parents, Glen and Imogene Lynch; sister, Peggy Gene Lynch; and great-granddaughter, Evany Barragan.

Gordy is survived by his daughters, Melody Lynch Hamilton, Keela Lynch, Kellie Alker and husband, Jeff, and Kerri Hudson and husband, Kenny; 11 grandchildren, Jordan Alker, Jansen Alker, Skyler Fluitt, Kyler Fluitt, Shayde Fluitt, Jesi Ramsey, Sami Moore, Felecia Pigg, Frankie Pigg, Robert Hudson and Hanna Hudson; 13 great-grandchildren; brother Doyle Ray Lynch and wife, Virginia; many cousins, nieces, nephews, and a host of friends.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made in honor of Gordy to the Forestburg Volunteer Fire Department at 261 Gainesville Street, Forestburg, TX 76239 or the New Harp Cemetery Association, c/o Olita Lanier, 745 Lanier Road, Forestburg, TX 76239.
