Kyle Larry Robertson went to be with his Lord Jan. 31, 2022, his 44th birthday.

He loved the ocean and died in Galveston.

He was born to Charlie and Maryla Robertson on a cold and icy day, Jan. 31, 1978, in Arlington Memorial Hospital.

Always smiling, happy and fun loving, he was always up for a good time. In his youth, he excelled in the USA BMX Bicycle Association, winning first place in his division race at nationals in Oklahoma City and state championships. He traveled extensively chasing points and was rated as one of the best in his class in the nation.

Kyle was a 1996 graduate of Northwest High School.

Kyle had the gift of gab, was a deep thinker, writer and very talented artist. His work was sought after because of the originality he put in each piece, creating whatever was on his mind at the time. He loved music, classic horror movies and all things Halloween!

In Kyle's own words, taken from a recent diary entry, "My life story is a very long, complicated subject that spans many degrees and depths of success, failure, depravity, and times that were a blast."

He is survived by his adored daughter, Kylie Robertson- Dyer of Haslet; his parents, Maryla and Charlie Robertson, of Newark; sister, Nikki Robertson Cantrell of Keller; his nephews Caleb Cantrell of San Antonio and Cade Cantrell of Fayetteville, Ark.

Other survivors are his aunt, Jacque Howell

Harthcock, and husband, Clyde of Magnolia; cousins, Shelly Tomlinson and family of Conroe and Bill Harthcock and family of Round Rock; aunt Janice Robertson of Houston, cousins Janet Remchek and family of Tulsa, Okla., Susan Wilbanks and husband, Gregg, of Porter and Amy Raymon and family of Houston; aunt Helen Robertson Hopkins and husband, Mark, of Decatur, cousins Courtney Hopkins Mullaney and family of Fort Worth and Amanda Hopkins Black and family of Austin. He had an honorary aunt, Sherry Chuprathoom of Springtown. Denver family cousin Heidi Robertson and daughter, Dominique, cousin Deborah, and husband, Jesse, and their children, Jessica, Jesse Jr. and Tiffany. He had many second cousins and life long friends.

"To live in the hearts we leave behind is not to die", quote by Thomas Campbell. Go be with Jesus and all those who love you. Kyle will be missed and loved always and forever by those of us left on this earth.

Private services will be held at a later date.
