Jason Wayne Schulz, 48, of Boyd, went to be with the Lord, Sunday, May 8, 2022, in Decatur, due to heart failure.

A celebration of his life will be held at 11 a.m., Saturday, June 4, at Western Star Cowboy Church, 790 FM 3696, in Springtown.

He was born in Sikeston, Mo., Sept. 15, 1973.

Jason was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Gilbert and Naomi Hutchcraft, and paternal grandparents, Pat and Margaret Rowell.

Jason graduated from Elk Grove Village High School in Elk Grove Village, Ill. He graduated from UTI Auto Mechanic School in Illinois and later he attained a Mechanical Air Craft license in Texas and was recognized on the Dean's list for two semesters. Jason had been a heavy equipment operator, was a mechanic and in the last few years also worked at Riley's Oil Change in Boyd.

Jason is survived by his wife, Laura; step-daughters, Sarah and Meagan Terry; mother, Mary Bowden and step-father, Bobby Bowden; brother, Gordon Rowell and his father, Michael Rowell. Jason had a multitude of close friends who were like family to him, including Donald Cook and his family and Jeremy Young and his family.
