A celebration of life for Fred Meyers, 71, of Bridgeport, will be held 3 p.m. Friday, March 31, 2023, at First Methodist Church Bridgeport. Visitation will be 1 p.m., two hours prior to the service. The Rev. Dr. Lucia Kremzar will officiate. He passed away peacefully March 26, 2023.

Fred was born Sept. 10, 1951, to Howard Frederick and Martha (Mott) Meyers in Olney. He graduated from Bridgeport High School in 1970 and continued his education at Tarleton State University, earning his bachelor's degree. Fred married Cindy (Cheves) Meyers, Dec. 30, 1972, in Bridgeport. They were happily married for 50 years. He was a well-known and longtime resident and business owner in Bridgeport. Fred belonged to many organizations including the First Presbyterian Church of Bridgeport, where he was an elder, Bridgeport Lions Club, Director of Bridgeport Chamber of Commerce, Bridgeport EDC Board, Bridgeport

Planning and Zoning Board, TIRZ Board and the Masonic Lodge of Bridgeport. Fred earned many awards and honors throughout the years including Bridgeport Citizen of the Year in 1980 and he is also featured on the Bridgeport High School 'Wall of Fame.' Fred had many hobbies, including hunting, golf and attending his grandchildren's activities. He was a pillar of the community and had a servant's heart. He devoted much of his time to community service. Fred loved his community and was an avid Bulls fan. He will be deeply missed by both his family and community.

Those left to cherish his memory are his wife; son, Matt Meyers and wife, Laurie, of North Richland Hills; daughter, Meredith Coffman and husband, Jody, of Granbury; brother, Jimmy Meyers and wife, Janis, of Bridgeport; sisters, Cathy Blum and husband, Tommy, of Fort Worth and Susie Anders and husband, Jim, of Hot Springs, Ark; grandchildren, Averie, Jace and Jack Coffman and Bransen and Colt Meyers; sisters-in-law, Marsha Scroggins and husband, Mike, of Fort Worth, and Kay Walker and husband, George, of Cedar Hill; numerous nieces and nephews; and a host of friends and family.

Fred is preceded in death by his parents; and in-laws, Norris and Joyce Cheves.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to the First Presbyterian Church or The Lions Club in Bridgeport.
