Born on May 7, 2004, in Fort Worth, Texas, Boston was the cherished child of Kyle Monett and Amy Crist Rodenburgh. He worked as a Driller Helper for Maxon Drilling, was an avid fisherman, bull rider, and his affection for animals was unrivaled. He had an unwavering commitment to his friends, always ready to lend a helping hand or put them first without hesitation.
Boston was a beloved son, grandson, brother, nephew, cousin, boyfriend and friend to many.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Roy Monett, and his great-grandparents, Mary Ann Meer, Kurt Alexander Meer, Edward Duane Crist, and Pauline Campbell, and uncle, Eric Monett.

Left to cherish his memory are his mother, Amy Rodenburgh, and stepfather Luke; his father, Kyle Monett, and stepmother Leslie; his brother, Bryce Monett; his step-siblings, Joey and Bryson Rodenburgh, and Kelsie Worley; his grandparents, Oren "Skip" and Angela Howard, Larry and Celia Crist, Gayle Monett, and Jim and Bonnie Rodenburgh; his girlfriend, Emilee Adams; numerous aunts, uncles, great-aunts, and great-uncles; cousins, and an extensive circle of friends.
