Cecile Denise Hamman Moore, 62, passed away at home in Saint Jo on Wednesday, Oct. 18, 2023. She was born in Lawton, OK on Aug. 19, 1961 to Arlie and Doris Hamman.

Cecile was a housewife for many years and was taking care of the home when she passed. She was a city girl that turned country after meeting her husband, Don, on Oct. 7, 1989. She loved camping, fishing, four-wheeling, lawn work, splitting firewood, hot chocolate, morning coffee, taking pictures and a million other things, especially cooking. No one would ever go away hungry if Cecile was there.

She was a rare combination of steel and velvet, unbending in her faith in God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit and what was right, but also so kind, tender and nurturing, even leaving the porch light on at night to make sure the spider next to it caught some bugs.

Cecile and Don had 34 years together since Don was nineteen years old. They did everything together, and even after 34 years, they still fell asleep holding hands. She is tremendously missed, but will hold hands together again with Don someday.

Cecile is survived by her husband, Don Moore; mother-in-law, Carol Moore; aunt-in-law, Helen Brooks and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Funeral services were held at DeBerry Funeral Directors 11 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 25, 2023. Cecile was laid to rest at Greenwood Cemetery in Wise County.
