Ella Faye Strait was born Nov. 23, 1942, to William Edgar and Eunice Irene Roberts. She was the youngest of 12 children, also the last to step into heaven. She was loved by SO many family and friends. Ella loved volunteering in the kitchen at church, gardening, crocheting, and hummingbirds.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Donald, and two sons, Mark and Tony.

Living children are Lyndia and husband, Jimmy; Jamie and wife, Lori; daughter-in-law, Donna, widow to son, Mark; Gina; Dawn and husband, Donald; and Ellene and husband, Ricky; grandkids, Alex, Andrew, Ayrin, Amber, Kiersten, Josh, Jason, Billy, Randy, Jessica, Jennifer, Janise, TJ, Garrett, Kieran, Jeffrey, Deric, Brandi, Jacob, Katheryn, Randy, Christia and Cody, along with their spouses; a multitude of great grandchildren; as well as three great- great grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Ella was the rock of the family, always willing to lend a hand, was always a listening ear and would always give her best advice, whether you wanted it or not! She will be greatly missed, but we know she is having a wonderful time at her "Homecoming" party.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.
