He will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and all who knew him. Dan was renowned for his infectious laughter, his Elvis impersonations that lit up every room, and his unwavering faith.
An automotive enthusiast at heart, Dan's passion for cars was only surpassed by his love for fixing them. He was a skilled handyman who could tackle any project, always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need. Dan cherished his lifelong friendships. He found joy in spending time on the golf course, watching Nascar and Dallas Cowboys where he forged many lasting memories with his friends. His warm heart and genuine kindness touched the lives of everyone he encountered.

In honor of Dan's memory, donations can be made to First Baptist Church in Alvord, TX. A celebration of Dan's life will be held on March 9th at 12:00 p.m. at First Baptist Church in Alvord, TX., where friends and family will come together to honor his legacy and share cherished memories.
